

TAPPING THE SOURCE

BRINGING THE RICHES INTO YOUR LIFE

Life is prolific and abundant. You are life.
You are prolific and abundant.

If you are not demonstrating this attribute of Life in your life, it is almost certain that you are demonstrating instead the conditioning, yes, even brainwashing that there is lack.

Life knows not the meaning of lack or limitation. These illusionary thoughts and seeming conditions exist through erroneous concepts in this play we call life on earth.

As we slowly descended into these lower realms, True vision became clouded and distorted, through the misconception we call fear, another illusion.

As the conscious contact with the Source became dimmer, the heart cried out for that which it was familiar, Divine Love.

This descent was so slow and gradual, with the attention on new and different experiences that the conscious contact with the Source was slowly replaced with the attention so glued to the physical that we forgot who we are.

We always have been, we are now and always will be one with the Source in all ways, except as we consciously or unconsciously choose to think of ourselves separate.

This connection with the Source is known by the Soul or Higher Self, but when we, with the physical self neglect the Spiritual food that comes from the communion with the Reality of our True being, we feel hungry for that which feeds the Real Self and we reach out blindly in desperation in many ways, almost always to the outer physical, because that is where the attention is and all the physical self knows. The physical is the reflection, not Reality.

The answer is to reach higher, above and beyond the physical, bringing down the understanding of the limitless supply of all to the conscious physical self, thus bringing the Kingdom of Heaven on earth, (a state of consciousness).

For most this exercise must be repeated again and again to break the chains of habit of the limited belief.

Life, The Source, wants to give us the whole Kingdom and all it contains, peace, love, fulfillment and abundance of any and all material wealth we desire. But we cannot reach for the Riches of life with one hand and push it away with the other, through negative fear, lack and limited thinking, feeling, moods and attitudes.

As we firmly decide that we deserve the Rich life with the conscious mind, we can re-educate the subconscious level to accept that which is already ours.

For most the subconscious habit patterns are rigidly set in a rut with repeated negative reinforcement over a long span of time and will take as much undoing as doing. But the time and effort is worthwhile because we, at some time in this Life Eternal, have to start living the Truth.

The present is the only time we can achieve anything. Let us then reinforce the True Reality of our being and be, in consciousness, that which we already are, Eternal Beings with unlimited wealth of all that Life is and has.

AFFIRMATION

I AM THE RICHEST OF ALL, FOR I TRULY ACCEPT THE LIMITLESS ABUNDANCE THAT CONTINUALLY FLOWS FROM THE SOURCE INTO THE HANDS OF MY CONSCIOUSNESS, THE RICHES OF THE UNIVERSE.

ALL THAT I DESIRE IS MINE TO COMMAND, FOR I AM ALL THAT IS, THROUGH THE SOURCE OF ALL THAT IS. I NOW ACCEPT ALL THAT I AM AND DEMONSTRATE IT IN MY EVERY THOUGHT, WORD AND DEED.
